WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Variable cloudiness and cooler conditions are expected for the next few days as an upper level trough approaches the coast. Light rain showers are likely Sunday and Monday across areas north of Cape Mendocino. A return of warmer and drier weather is expected Tuesday and Wednesday as high pressure rebuilds over California.

San Francisco Weather:

A slight cooling trend will continue today as the upper level ridge weakens. Further cooling is expected this weekend through early next week as an upper level system impacts the Pacific Northwest. While a few showers are possible Monday across the North Bay, generally dry weather will persist through the forecast period.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Sacramento Weather:

Upper ridge weakens today bringing a slight cooling and more onshore flow. Continued onshore flow and more cooling over the weekend is expected as a cool low pressure system approaches the Pacific Northwest coast. A slight threat of showers or thunderstorms will drop southward Sunday evening through Monday as the low pressure system drops southeastward through Northern California. Temperatures warm back to well above normal Tuesday through Friday as high pressure rebuilds.

Hanford Weather:

Strong high pressure over Central California with well above normal temperatures are expected through the remainder of the week. A cool down is expected this weekend and into early next week.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

Temperatures will begin to cool today especially at the coast. Significant cooling and a return of the marine layer will occur this weekend and continue into next week.

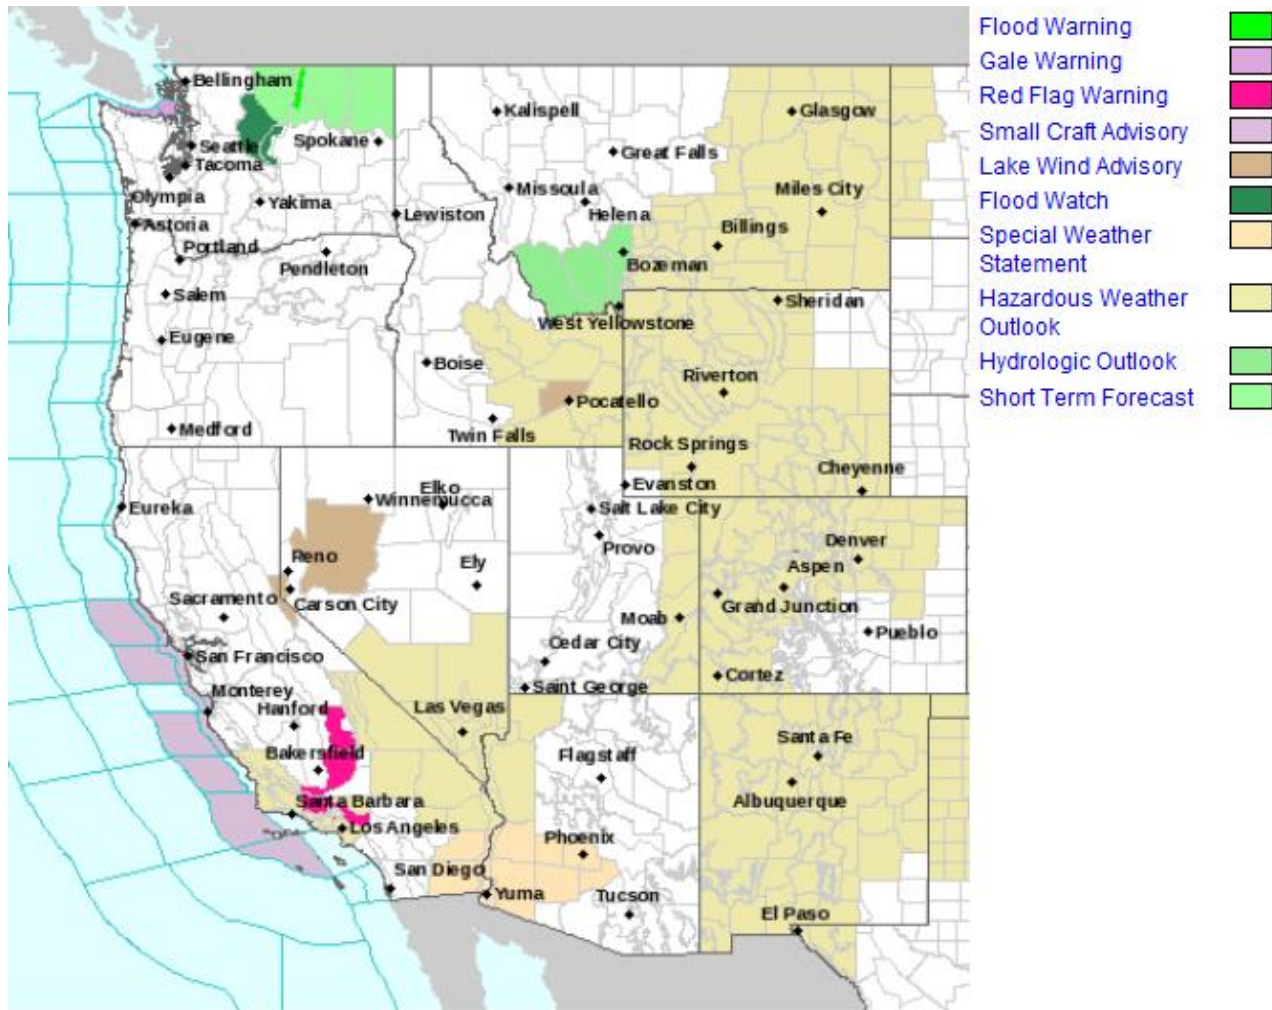

Extreme Southwestern California Including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

A minor cooling trend will begin today as high pressure starts to weaken over the West. However, hot and very dry conditions will continue to prevail with greater cooling in store for this weekend and early next week as a trough deepens along the West Coast. Low clouds and fog could return to the immediate coast as early as Saturday morning spreading progressively farther inland each night and morning with some drizzle possible west of the mountains Monday night and Tuesday morning. Gusty west winds will also develop in the mountains and deserts this weekend and continue into the first part of the work week.

Southeast California Weather:

Desert temperatures will climb above 100 degrees in many locations today through Sunday as a strong high pressure system builds. A dry cold front will approach on Monday leading to windy afternoons Monday and Tuesday. A cooler air mass will settle over Southeastern California Tuesday through Friday in the wake of the cold front.

Fix50 Eastbound Work to Finish Early

All Eastbound lanes to be fully open by Friday morning, May 16

The Fix50 project is ahead of schedule, and motorists will get a nice break for Memorial Day Weekend when all lanes will be open. Eastbound Phase 2, which began five days early to resurface the outside lanes of Highway 50 between 18th and 24th Streets in Sacramento, will finish 6 days early on May 16.

All lanes of Highway 50 will be open to motorists for a full ten days. Work will resume after Memorial Day Weekend so there will be no interruption for travelers over the holiday when the Sacramento Music Festival and County Fair are in town.

"Caltrans would like to thank our partners for their added outreach, staff, and services that helped to increase public awareness and alleviate traffic issues," added Director Jones. "We also thank drivers who changed their regular workday commute, or chose alternate modes of transportation. Those motorists who chose to bike commute, use light rail, bus, train, walk, carpool, and avoided unnecessary trips helped lessen the overall traffic impacts in the region."

Additionally, Caltrans advises the public to continue advanced travel planning for the closures scheduled on the westbound side and to expect additional delays.

On Thursday evening, May 15, crews will begin the process to reopen all eastbound lanes. The change-over will begin at approximately 9 PM, and involves removing K-rail barriers, changing the sign structures, and sealing and restriping the newly completed lanes into their original configuration. The full transition will finish by 7 AM Friday morning May 16, concluding all traffic-interfering work on eastbound Highway 50 in the W-X Viaduct. There will be some finishing work to do once both phases are complete, but nothing that will require major traffic interference.

Hornet Drive, which has been closed to Folsom Blvd. traffic for use as a detour, will also be reopened Friday morning and will remain open until Westbound Phase 2 begins.

Traffic heading to the Sacramento Republic FC game at Hughes Stadium on Saturday, May 17 will be able to use the connector ramp from eastbound Highway 50 to southbound 99 to get to the game.

CAL OES DROUGHT ACTIVATIONS

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- The SOC is activated at Level 2 in support of the Drought State of Emergency from 0800-1700 hours daily.
- The Inland REOC is activated at Level 2 from 0800-1700 Monday through Friday or as needed.
- The Southern REOC is activated at Level 1.
- The Santa Barbara County OA EOC is activated at Level 2 to be handled by the duty officer for the purpose of monitoring activities and gaining situational awareness. The operational period is 0800-1700 hours.

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

Situational Summary

On January 17, 2014 Governor Edmund G. Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for drought conditions. The State Operation Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities. The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue without substantial rainfall, severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State over the next few months. Negative economic impacts will also result.

*As our state's rainy season comes to an end, it is highly unlikely that precipitation totals will increase significantly. This winter's below average rain and snowfall worsens conditions in this third straight dry year.

The drought could result in severe impacts to the municipal water supplies, wells, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities for several months. The SOC continues to be activated to monitor the situation statewide, and support regional and local operational areas.

- The Taskforce continues to meet regularly to take actions that conserve water and coordinate state response to the drought.
- The most recent snowpack survey, conducted on April 1, recorded California snowpack at 32% of normal. A more recent update using automated devices shows snowpack at 19% of normal as of April 20.
- DWR has announced that water essential for health and safety will be delivered through the state water project in spite of the zero allocation policy. Deliveries will be boosted if storms produce enough rain and snow to increase reservoir storage and the snow pack.
- Cal OES continues to gather drought-related costs from state agencies and local governments.
